#1

New Law Violation:

On September 21, 2006, Lewis was arrested by the Cincinnati, Ohio police on charges of Domestic Violence and Assault. On October 11, 2006, the charges were dismissed in Hamilton County, Ohio Municipal Court.

The complaint alleged Lewis assaulted Tara Geer and their son outside of Lewis's residence.

U.S. Probation Officer Action:

After the arrest, Lewis reported to the U.S. Probation Office and provided pictures of the injuries he suffered from the incident between Tara Geer and himself. In addition, Lewis presented a disc recording of two phone messages he received from Geer a couple days before the incident. The phone messages indicated that Geer planned to come to Lewis's residence and start trouble with him, and it was clear she was very upset with Lewis because she did not think he was having enough contact with their son.

Further investigation determined, Lewis's friend called 911 during the incident, but Geer and their son left before the police arrived. Geer immediately went to the police and requested a referral for charges of Domestic Violence and Assault, which she received and filed by herself at the Clerk's Office. She then called the police and told them of the warrants. So, the police arrived at Lewis's residence and arrested him.

Based on the dismissal in court and evidence Lewis presented to this officer, this officer is respectfully recommending no action be taken as a result of Lewis's contact with law enforcement.
